FederalReporting.gov Reporting Requirements

What's Required:
- Recipients to report select financial and jobs information into an OMB-managed database (FederalReporting.gov)
- Registration can be completed now
- Reporting can be submitted 1 to 10 days after the end of every fiscal quarter. Recipients who forget to report by the 10th can still register and report, though it is unclear how FederalReporting.gov would manage the information.
- Days 11 -21 are available for Recipients to review and edit the data loaded by the 10th.
- If initial funds were obligated in FY2009, Recipients must report by October 10 and thereafter through completion of the project. Recipients awarded in Q1 2010 (October 1 – December 31, 2009), will be required to report beginning in January 2010.

- Helping Recipients:
  - DOE Recovery Clearinghouse (https://recoveryclearinghouse.energy.gov or 1-888-363-7289) is DOE's POC for answering questions about reporting requirements.

- No Exemptions:
  - FederalReporting.gov reporting requirements does NOT exempt a recipient from DOE reporting requirements or any other reporting requirements. Questions concerning reporting requirements should be directed to your contracting officer.

As a Prime Recipient what do I need to report?

- Data related to Prime Recipient
- Data related to Sub-Recipients
  - Primes can delegate some reporting to Sub-Recipients
  - Exception: Primes must report Jobs for Sub-Recipients
- Data related to Vendors paid more than $25,000 in a single purchase

- Jobs Guidance
  - Actual Jobs must be reported
  - Reported as FTEs
  - Direct jobs only
  - Jobs saved and retained reported as a single number
  - If counting actual jobs is too onerous, Recipients can request to use a statistical methodology
    - Process available at http://www.energy.gov/recovery/ARRA_Reporting_Requirements.htm
    - If a statistical methodology is used, it should be noted in the jobs type field.

Prime Recipient - A non-federal organization receiving Recovery Act funding (grants, loans, or cooperative agreements) directly from the Federal Government.

Sub-Recipient - A non-federal organization spending Federal awards received from another organization to carry out a Federal program – not a program beneficiary.

Vendor - A dealer, distributor, merchant, or other seller providing goods or services that are required of the conduct of a Recovery program.

OMB Definition: Full-Time Equivalent (FTE)

The estimate of the number of jobs required by the Recovery Act should be expressed as "full-time equivalents" (FTE), which is calculated as total hours worked in jobs created or retained divided by the number of hours in a full-time schedule, as defined by the recipient. The FTE estimates must be reported cumulatively each calendar quarter.

Jobs: DOE Policy for Approving Recipients use of Estimation Techniques

- OMB allows for DOE (with OMB concurrence) to approve the use of a statistical methodology.

- DOE will require all prime contractors to report actual jobs (i.e., any recipient following the FAR guidelines cannot use an estimation technique.).

- Eligible Recipients include those that:

  - Administer significant ARRA funds ($10+ million) that are distributed to 100s of projects
  - Fund a set of projects with similar operating characteristics and nature of the work performed
  - Have a pre-existing validated statistical method
  - Can demonstrate an actual count would impose a significant burden

- Approval Process: the recipient is required to submit by September 21, 2009 a written proposal to the DOE Contracting Officer identified in the award to include:

  - A justification as to why an alternate methodology is needed
  - A technical description of the proposed methodology
  - The qualifications of the persons conducting the statistical methodology
  - A statement on the duration of time to apply the methodology
  - A point of contact

- By Friday, September 25, DOE/CFO, in conjunction with OMB, will determine whether a recipient's appeal should be considered further or rejected.   Though deadline has passed, DOE will still consider requests.

OMB requires recipients to report on a range of data elements

Prime Recipients are responsible for accurate data, including the number of Recipient and Sub-Recipient jobs created and the amount of Recovery money spent.

Select OMB Data Elements	Simple Definitions
Amount of Award	Total dollar amount of Recovery funds received by recipient from DOE for this project.
Award Number	The identifying number assigned by the awarding Federal Agency, such as the federal grant number or loan number.

Total Number and Amount of Sub-awards	Total number of sub-awards issued. Total dollar amount of sub-awards paid to recipients during the past quarter.

Definitions of Recipients

- Prime Recipient - A non-federal organization receiving Recovery Act funding (grants, loans, or cooperative agreements) directly from the Federal Government.

- Sub-Recipient - A non-federal organization spending Federal awards received from another organization to carry out a Federal program – not a program beneficiary.

Jobs: Reporting Direct Jobs

WHAT'S A DIRECT JOB (reported)
Any job that is directly funded by Recovery Act on the grantee or sub-grantee level.

- Example: The State of California receives a $189M grant from DOE for Weatherization. The State hires five FTE to administer the program. California distributes grants to 50 sub-grantees.

- State will report job creation of 5 FTE and will provide the total direct employment impact of the 50 grants.

- States report sub-jobs in FTEs and should ask Sub-Recipient and Vendors how many jobs were created/retained.

WHAT'S AN "INDIRECT" JOB (not reported)
Employment impact on materials suppliers and service providers.

- i.e., Home Depot hires more staff to handle weatherization suppliers.

Employment impact on local community ("induced" jobs).

- i.e., A restaurant hires extra staff near a construction site as an indirect result of Recovery funds.

Employees who are not directly charged to Recovery Act activities, even if they provide indirect support.

- e.g., clerical/admin staff, review board staff members, departmental administrators.
